TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

RE: Shelly Mellomida

Shelly Mellomida is an enthusiastic, intelligent, organized, and resourceful person whom I have had the privilege of working with since January 2001. As her client, Navigant Consulting, Inc., I have been witness to her quality of work, her delivery in qualified temps, enthusiasm, and very professional manner with myself and other staff.

She is someone who likes a challenge and who is a self-starter, motivator, and gets the job done! She needs minimal direction. She is an extremely determined individual which I feel makes her very successful in what she does.

Her people skills and abilities have allowed her to produce quality, error-free work under very demanding client circumstances at times. She was always very quick in getting our client needs met. Her skills are well developed, and work ethic is exceptional!

I would highly recommend Shelly to any employer as an outstanding individual with good interpersonal skills, and abilities that will enable her to continue in her chosen work. She has a great attitude, is a team player, and a first-class professional!

Sincerely,

Marce Abshear
